US Imperialism Practice Questions

Base your answers to questions 11 and 12 on the cartoon below and on your knowledge of social studies.

11 The primary goal of the United States foreign policy referred to in the cartoon was to

1) build United States factories in the Caribbean region
2) improve relations with Caribbean nations
3) provide defense for nations in the Caribbean
4) protect United States interests in the Caribbean region

12 To carry out the foreign policy referred to in the cartoon, President Theodore Roosevelt added a corollary to the

1) Monroe Doctrine
2) Open Door policy
3) Good Neighbor policy
4) Panama Canal Treaty

13 The United States issued the Open Door policy (1899—1900) primarily to

1) bring democratic government to the Chinese people
2) secure equal trade opportunities in China
3) force China to change its immigration policies
4) use China as a stepping stone to trade with Japan

14 The purpose of the Open Door policy was to

1) encourage European nations to increase their investments in Asian nations
2) announce a change in United States policy toward immigration from Asia
3) improve trading opportunities in China for United States businesses
4) urge China to lower its protective tariffs
A major reason the United States began to seek colonies during the late 1890's was that the

1. Monroe Doctrine required such action
2. expansion of American industry made acquiring new markets and additional resources desirable
3. population pressures within the United States had become more severe
4. cold-war rivalry between the United States and the Soviet Union had heightened

Which headline related to the Spanish-American War is an example of yellow journalism?

1. "President McKinley Asks Congress for War Declaration Against Spain"
2. "United States Mobilizes for War with Spain"

!Map showing US imperialism in Latin America

Source: Thomas G. Paterson et al., American Foreign Policy: A History 1900 to Present, D. C. Heath, 1991 (adapted)

59 The United States government justified most of the actions shown on the map by citing the

1. terms of the Roosevelt corollary to the Monroe Doctrine
2. threats from Germany after World War I
3. desire to stop illegal immigration from Latin America
4. need to protect Latin America from the threat of communism

60 Which title would be the most accurate for this map?

1. Ending Colonization in Latin America
2. Promoting Trade with Latin America
3. Humanitarian Aid in the Western Hemisphere
4. United States Intervention in the Caribbean Area

61 Between the 1890s and the start of World War I, the United States expanded its access to overseas markets and raw materials through the policy of

1. containment
2. imperialism
3. isolationism
4. neutrality

62 The closing of the frontier and the growth of industry in the late 1800s are two factors often associated with the

1. reduction of exports to Asian nations
2. restoration of a plantation economy in the South
3. formation of alliances with other nations
4. rise of United States imperialism
63 During the late 19th and early 20th centuries, United States policy toward Latin America was most strongly characterized by

1. friendship and trust
2. intervention and paternalism
3. tolerance and humanitarianism
4. indifference and neglect

64 Some critics believe that the United States has had uneasy relations with much of Latin America because the United States has

1. been too friendly with Cuba
2. allowed a Communist takeover in Mexico
3. stopped the development of natural resources in Latin America
4. placed its own economic and political concerns above the welfare of Latin America

65 Which heading best completes the partial outline below?

I. ____________________________________________
   A. Open Door policy

   D. Truman Doctrine

1. American Domestic Programs
2. Cold War Events
3. United States Interventionism
4. Efforts at Isolationism

66 The Spanish-American War (1898) marked a turning point in United States foreign policy because the United States

1. developed a plan for peaceful coexistence
2. emerged as a major world power
3. pledged neutrality in future European conflicts
4. refused to become a colonial power

67 Which United States foreign policy is the subject of this 1904 cartoon?

1. imperialism     2. neutrality
3. isolationism    4. containment

68 The cartoonist is expressing concerns about the ability of the United States to

1. accept citizens from foreign countries
2. control territories spread out over vast distances
3. support human rights around the world
4. maintain a trade surplus with new trading partners

69 One foreign policy goal of President Theodore Roosevelt was to

1. create future states by annexing Pacific island territories
2. restrict European intervention in the Western Hemisphere
3. limit United States investment in Latin America
4. encourage independence movements in Africa 70 As a result of the Spanish-American War, the United States saw the need to build the Panama Canal because
(1) new colonies had been acquired in Africa
(2) Spanish opposition to the canal had ended
(3) the United States navy could then move more quickly between oceans
(4) United States railroads could not transport enough manufactured goods

71 A major reason for the United States decision to build the Panama Canal was the
(1) success of the Erie Canal
(2) discovery of silver in Nevada
(3) need to prevent Mexico from retaking California and Texas
(4) desire to increase foreign trade and military security

72 During the late 19th and early 20th centuries, United States intervention in Latin America was motivated by the United States desire to
(1) protect its growing investments in Latin America
(2) encourage Latin American trade with Europe
(3) end Latin American independence movements
(4) reduce the influence of communism in Latin America

74 A belief in manifest destiny, the passage of the Dawes Act, and the completion of the transcontinental railroad are most closely associated with the
(1) rise of big business
(2) growth of the labor movement
(3) abolitionist movement
(4) expansion and settlement of the West

75 President Theodore Roosevelt's Corollary to the Monroe Doctrine primarily affected Latin America by
(1) guaranteeing human rights throughout the Western Hemisphere
(2) supporting independence movements in many countries
(3) encouraging immigration to the United States
(4) increasing United States intervention in the region

76 Early in the 20th century, Presidents William Taft and Woodrow Wilson used the concept of dollar diplomacy to
(1) help European nations avoid war
(2) expand United States influence in China
(3) protect United States investments in Latin America
(4) support welfare programs for immigrants to the United States

77 Secretary of State John Hay sent his Open Door Notes (1899–1900) to world powers to
(1) keep Chinese workers from coming to America
(2) secure a fair settlement in the Russo-Japanese War
(3) protect United States trading interests in China
(4) bring a peaceful end to the Boxer Rebellion

78 The main purpose of the Open Door policy, announced by the United States in 1899, was to
(1) encourage the introduction of modern government into China
(2) establish United States domination of Asian affairs
(3) increase United States trade with China
(4) provide China with military weapons
79. During the late 19th and early 20th centuries, the intervention of the United States in Latin America was motivated mainly by a desire to

1. reduce the influence of communism
2. control Latin American independence movements
3. promote European colonization of the area
4. protect growing United States investments in Latin America

80. The main reason President Theodore Roosevelt supported a Panamanian rebellion against Colombia in 1903 was to

1. increase the number of democratic nations in Latin America
2. gain the right to complete a canal linking the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans
3. reduce European colonialism in the Western Hemisphere
4. prevent a foreign power from seizing land in Central America

81. This rhyme from the early 1900's suggests that President Theodore Roosevelt relied heavily on the advice of his Cabinet and Congress, failed to make adequate use of executive power, developed strong foreign policies but neglected domestic needs, ignored democratic principles in carrying out foreign policy.

82. The practice of yellow journalism most directly influenced the

1. purchase of Alaska
2. acquisition of the Mexican Cession
3. start of the Spanish-American War

Speaker B: If we don't help this country fight off the Communists, the entire region will be overrun by communism.

Speaker C: American businesses are producing more than they can sell. We need to acquire overseas markets.

Speaker D: We must not join this international organization. If we do, Congress will lose its power to declare war.

Which speaker is most likely an American imperialist of the early 20th century?

(1) A  (2) B  (3) C  (4) D

94 During the late 19th century, the growth of capitalism encouraged United States imperialism because of the desire of business to

(1) obtain new markets for American products
(2) compete with foreign industries
(3) provide humanitarian aid to poor nations
(4) industrialize underdeveloped nations

95 A study of the application of the Monroe Doctrine from 1823 to the present would most likely show that

(1) Latin America continues to be dominated by European country
(2) equality has been promoted among the countries of the Western Hemisphere
(3) the countries of South America have been united under one government
(4) the United States has been a strong influence in Latin America
The principle that the United States has the right to act as the "policeman of the Western Hemisphere" and intervene in the internal affairs of Latin American nations was established by the

1 Good Neighbor policy
2 Open Door policy
3 Roosevelt Corollary to the Monroe Doctrine
4 Marshall Plan

Base your answer on the speakers' statements below and on your knowledge of social studies.

Speaker A: In order to maintain the security of the nation, the United States needs colonies in which it can establish naval bases.

Speaker B: The United States has problems of its own to be concerned about, so we must focus our attention here at home.

Speaker C: If the United States is to compete in a global economy, it needs to look beyond its borders for markets.

Speaker D: Supporting an overseas empire would become an enormous burden on the American people.

The focus of the speakers' debate is the controversy over the

1 purchase of Alaska
2 policy of imperialism
3 size of the United States military 4 closing of the frontier

Yellow journalism contributed to the start of the Spanish-American War (1898) by

1 portraying William McKinley as a pro-war president 2 inciting public outrage over conditions in Cuba
3 showing the need to acquire colonies in the Pacific
4 demanding the repeal of the Gentlemen’s Agreement

"But today we are raising more than we can consume. Today we are making more than we can use. Today our industrial society is congested; there are more workers than there is work; there is more capital than there is investment. We do not need more money—we need more circulation, more employment. Therefore, we must find new markets for our produce, new occupation for our capital, new work for our labor. . . ."

— Senator Albert J. Beveridge, 1898

This statement provides a reason why political leaders of the late 1800s adopted the policy of

1 imperialism
2 isolationism
3 protectionism
4 collective security
