

Release from Quarantine Guidance:

If your child has been placed on quarantine due to a COVID exposure, you will receive an official release letter from the Broome County Health Department. The date of release given is the last day of quarantine. The release goes into effect after the completion of that day. The district has verified with the Broome County Health Department that the release date is the last date of quarantine with the following day being the return to school and extracurricular activities. Thank you.