Directions: Choose the one best answer to each item.

Items 1 to 5 refer to the following articles.

1. A peasant who was bound to work the land for the lord of the manor was called a
   (1) knight.
   (2) vassal.
   (3) noble.
   (4) squire.
   (5) serf.

2. "Between you and your serf there is no judge but God," was a medieval saying. It indicated that
   (1) no laws protected a serf from his lord's treatment.
   (2) serfs were very religious.
   (3) English law protected the rights of the serfs.
   (4) serfs had an easy life.
   (5) most lords were kind and fair.

3. Why did serfs begin to leave the manors?
   (1) They saw new opportunities in towns.
   (2) They revolted against unfair lords.
   (3) They were promoted to lords themselves.
   (4) Both (1) and (2)
   (5) Both (1) and (3)

4. According to the second article
   (1) women serfs had easy lives.
   (2) serfs liked chicken.
   (3) serfs had to give most of the products of their labor to their lord.
   (4) geese are difficult animals to care for.
   (5) women were looked down upon in feudal society.

5. The feudal system began to fade in the 1400s. When was serfdom legally ended in England?
   (1) 1400s
   (2) 1500s
   (3) 1600s
   (4) 1700s
   (5) It was never legally ended.